Call for Proposals

Alabama Possible invites education and workforce partners to submit presentation proposals for the 2020 Alabama Education and Workforce Network Conference. Local, regional, and statewide partners who support students in their transition from high school to and through postsecondary education will find active participation in the conference to be particularly beneficial. Topics include:

- Postsecondary Access and Success
- Connecting College and Career Success
- Financial Aid and Literacy
- Academic Readiness for Postsecondary Education
- Social and Emotional Learning
- Equity and Opportunity

Presenters may include high school educators, counselors, and administrators; representatives from community-based organizations and government agencies; researchers and faculty members at colleges and universities; foundations and funders; and other education and workforce stakeholders. Presentations will be made during 60- or 75-minute breakout sessions.

The proposal should be clear and concise and must include the following:

- Session title that accurately reflects your session content (up to 12 words);
- Brief session description to be printed in the program (75-100 words);
- Three (3) learning objectives that clearly describe what attendees will be able to demonstrate as a result of having attended the session. Each objective must be measurable/observable (up to 25 words per objective);
- Detailed workshop description that includes what will be covered in the presentation; how it relates to the conference topic(s); and strategies that will be used to engage participants in discussing, analyzing, synthesizing, and applying the information from the presentation (500-word maximum);

- AV needs for your presentation; and
- Contact information for each presenter, including name, title, address, phone number, and email address.

Proposals are due by Wednesday, February 19, 2020, by 5 PM central time and should be submitted online at alabamapossible.org/conferencepresentations. There is a peer-reviewed process for acceptance, and potential presenters will be informed of decisions by Friday, March 13, 2020.

Presenters representing a high school should be a part of Alabama's College Campaign; a list of participants is available at alabamapossible.org/2019-2020-participating-schools/. Presenters representing a postsecondary institution should be members of Alabama Possible's Higher Education Alliance and must be current on their dues; a list of members is available at alabamapossible.org/programs/engaged-learning/.

Conference presenters should register for the conference. Correspondence should be sent to conference@alabamapossible.org.

More information about the event is available at alabamapossible.org/events/.
